If this proposal is deemed to constitute an offer, it may be accepted only on terms set forth in this proposal, including, without limitation, these Terms and Conditions. If this proposal constitutes an acceptance of an offer, such acceptance is expressly conditioned on Purchaser's assent solely to the terms of proposal, including, without limitation, these Terms and Conditions. An acceptance of any part of the Equipment or services covered hereunder shall be deemed to constitute such assent. Any additional and/or different terms and conditions proposed by Purchaser and/or any attempt by Purchaser to vary any of these terms and conditions shall be deemed a material alteration and is hereby objected to and rejected.
3. Unless otherwise agreed by Seller in writing, Seller's prices are subject to change without advance notice at any time prior to order acknowledgment. All sales are subject to increase without notification by the amount of any sales or excise tax levied or charged by any governmental agency and are subject to any price adjustment necessitated by Seller's compliance with any government action.

7. Any action for breach of the contract hereunder must be commenced within one year after the cause of action has accrued. Only variations or modifications to the contract which are made in writing signed by Seller and Purchaser shall be enforceable. Any failure by Seller to enforce its rights under this contract will not be deemed a waiver of such rights.
8. All disputes arising under or in connection with this Contract shall be resolved by (a) good-faith negotiations by knowledgeable, responsible representatives of each party who are fully authorized to settle any such dispute, or (b) in the event such negotiations do not resolve such dispute, binding arbitration held in Singapore, by a single arbitrator pursuant to the Arbitration Rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre. Notwithstanding the above, either party shall have the right to seek a temporary restraining order or an injunction related to the purposes of this Contract, to compel compliance with confidentiality obligations, or to file suit to compel compliance with this dispute resolution process.

9. Purchaser may not assign, novate or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations under this contract without Seller's prior written consent, and any attempt to do so shall be null and void and of no effect.

3. In the event of Termination, the Customer shall be liable to the Company for all the costs and expenses which it incurred up until the date thereof and the profit it reasonably expected to make on the Contract had the same been fully performed, less such net sum (if any) as the Company is able to make in disposing of the Products.

Not under any circumstances, to use any unapproved spare part, connected machinery, service or repair or use the Products in any manner as may render the Products dangerous and agrees that any breach of these negative criteria will negate all specific and implied conditions and obligations on the part of Seller relating to the quality of the Products.

Purchaser further agrees that it will be liable to Seller for any costs, expenses and losses it suffers by reason of any breach of these undertakings.

DRAWINGS, DESIGNS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

1. All of Seller's specifications, designs, drawings, indications of physical, chemical and electronic properties and indications of inlet pressure or vacuum, pressure output and power consumptions ("the Designs") are made in good faith and are approximate indications only and are not binding in detail unless Purchaser has specified in writing a particular indication upon which he is relying and Seller shall be entitled to vary the same and/or to correct errors and omissions provided the Products remain in substantial conformity with the contractual requirements.
2. The Designs (including all copyright, design right and other intellectual property in them) shall as between the parties be the property of Seller; and Purchaser is not entitled to make any use of the Designs other than for the purpose of this Contract.
3. Any inventions, modifications, improvements, techniques or know-how affecting the Products made or gained in the course of performing this Contract, shall belong to Seller absolutely.
4. Neither party shall disclose to third parties or use for its own purposes any confidential information or trade secrets of the other party.

Said interest rate shall be reduced to the maximum permissible rate in any state having laws which so require. B. International – Unless otherwise agreed to by the Seller's Manager of Credit and Collection, payment shall be in U.S. dollars by wire transfer in advance or irrevocable Letter of Credit, confirmed by a major international bank. In addition to such late payment charges, Seller may add to the amount past due any costs associated with collection thereof, including reasonable attorneys' fees.
2. Seller may, in its sole discretion, accept payment for Products by cash in advance or by money-down with scheduled progress payments.
3. Shipments and deliveries shall be subject to approval of Seller's Credit Department. If Purchaser fails to fulfill the terms of payment, or if at any time before payment in full is made (whether or not payment is yet due) a petition is presented or resolution passed for the winding up or bankruptcy of Purchaser, or in the event of the appointment of a receiver or administrator of Purchaser's business, Seller may defer further shipment or at its option, cancel the unshipped balance. 6. While expected dates of delivery of goods are given in good faith, the same are not of the essence of or in any way terms of the contract or representations of fact. All shipping dates given are approximate, and while effort is made to maintain schedules, Seller will not be liable for damages on account of delay. In case of delay by Purchaser in furnishing complete schedules or information, delivery dates may be extended for a reasonable time depending on factory conditions. The Seller shall not be responsible for reasonable or excusable delays nor shall the Purchaser refuse to accept delivery because of any such delays. Excusable delays include, without limitation, delays resulting from accidents, fires, floods, severe weather or other acts of God, strike, lockout or other labor difficulties, embargoes, government controls or other forms of intervention, inability to obtain labor, materials or services and other causes beyond Seller's control. If there is a scarcity in any of its products or goods, Seller will allocate its available supply in its sole discretion.
7. Title and risk of loss to the Products shall transfer to the Purchaser on the earlier of full payment and delivery; provided, however, that in the event delivery is prior to full payment, Seller shall retain a security interest in the Products until Seller receives payment in full. Pending payment of the full purchase price of the Equipment or parts furnished by Seller, Purchaser shall at all times keep the Equipment or parts comprehensively insured against loss or damage by accident, fire, theft and other risks usually covered by insurance in the type of business carried on by Purchaser in an amount at least equal to the balance of the price for the same from time to time remaining outstanding. In addition, the Purchaser undertakes not to charge by way of security any of the Products that remain the collateral of the Seller.
8. In the event of Cancellation in accordance with the provisions hereof, or in the event of non-payment (in full or in part) for the Equipment by the due date, Purchaser hereby irrevocably licenses Seller (insofar as it is able) to enter upon any premises to repossess the Equipment.
9. In the event that, after Seller complies with its delivery obligations or provides notice to Purchaser that the Equipment is ready for shipment, Purchaser refuses to accept delivery, Seller may, in its sole discretion, charge to Purchaser, as compensation for Seller's retention and storage of the Equipment or parts so refused and not as a penalty, a holding fee in an amount equal to 2% of the total value of the Equipment or parts so refused, per month (the "Holding Fee"). Should the Holding Fee or any portion thereof go unpaid when due, it will be added to the purchase price for the Equipment. Seller's retention and storage of Equipment or parts and Purchaser's payment of the Holding Fee therefor shall not alter in any way the title transfer and risk of loss provisions of this Contract.

INDEMNITY

Purchaser will indemnify, defend and hold Seller, its affiliated companies and their respective directors, officers, employees and agents harmless from any loss, claim, cost, expense or damage (including payment of reasonable attorneys' fees) suffered or incurred by any of them and/or for which any of them may be liable to any third party due to, arising from or in connection with, directly or indirectly:
